U.S. Probation Officer Action: Mr. Simpson has reported each month as required and continues to attend his individual drug treatment counseling sessions as instructed. Unfortunately, he was recently arrested and has pending new charges in Williamson County, Texas. USPO spoke to the victim, Megan Lucas, who advised she was not in fear of her life and was not scared of the defendant. USPO asked Ms. Lucas numerous times if she was intimidated or afraid that something would happen to her due to the defendant's previous actions. Again, Ms. Lucas advised she was not afraid or scared, however, she has no intentions to drop the charges and has filed a restraining order. Ms. Lucas was advised that USPO will notify the Court of the defendant's actions and advised her to call 911 if she felt threatened by the defendant at any time. Additionally, USPO advised Ms. Lucas to refrain from any contact or communication with the defendant to avoid getting into a dangerous situation. Ms. Lucas agreed and was satisfied with USPO's action step. Simpson will be contesting the Assault and Unauthorized Use of Vehicle charges which remain pending. If Your Honor finds it suitable, it is recommended that no action be taken at this time pending the final disposition of the Williamson County, Texas, cases. Simpson is scheduled to appear in Court on December 3, 2020, on both cases.

Accordingly, the Court reserves the right to revisit these allegations in the future. In addition, should Simpson incur any further violations, the Court will be immediately notified.
